

C.

R.

By the King.

C A Proclamation for the due administration of Iustice to all his Maiesties Subiects in his kingdome of IRELAND.

He Kings most excellent Maiestie, taking equall care of that his kingdome of Ireland, and his good and louing Subiects there, as he doth of this of England, or any other part of his Dominions, by the aduise of his Prīue Councell doth straightly charge and commaund, That the Deputie and Councell Table in Ireland now, and for the time being, shal not from henceforth, entertaine or take consideration of any priuate cause or causes, or controuerſies betweene partie and partie concerning their priuate or particular interests, nor of any causes or controuerſies at that Boord which are not of such nature as doe properly concerne matter of State, in the gouernement of that kingdome: But that all causes, & controuerſies of that nature moued, or depending betweene partie, and partie concerning the priuate or particular interests, be proceeded in those ordinary Courts of Iustice of that kingdome, respectiue to whose Iurisdiction the Cognesance of these causes & controuerſies doe properly belong. And that in those Courts, Iustice be from henceforth duly and equally distributed and administered to all his Maiesties Subiects of all degrees and qualities without respect of persons: And this to be duly obserued by the Deputie and Councell, and all the Iudges and Iustices, Officers, & Ministers of Iustice of that kingdome, As they tender his Maiesties heauie displeasure, & will anſwere to the contrarie at their perils. The 7. of November 1625.

God ſaue the King.

Imprinted at Dublin by the Societie of STATIONERS, Printers to the Kings most Excellent Maiestie. Anno Dom. 1625.